The new Forward Day by Day booklets for the months of August, September, and October are available at the back of the church and at the office.

Jubilee Christmas Amazon Wishlist

This year we are using an Amazon Wishlist to purchase many of the items for the family gift baskets. Many of the products are household cleaning or personal hygiene products. If you are shopping for back to school items, or just shopping in general on Amazon, take a look at our list and purchase a few things to help out the wonderful families we support every year at Christmas. Please contact Mary Kay McCauley (McCauley.mk3@gmail.com) for questions. Thank you all so much!

The Working Hungry -- screening and discussion: Join Bread for the World, Food Finders, and Lafayette Urban Ministry at a screening of the Emmy-nominated documentary The Working Hungry. This 30-minute film tells the story of three Hoosier families struggling with food insecurity and explains why systemic solutions are needed to make sure that no family experiences hunger in our communities. Join us on Thursday, August 31, 6:30 pm, Long Center for the Performing Arts, 111 N. Sixth St., Lafayette. Scan this code to sign up for the screening:

Attention Women of St. John's:

Hello from the Council of the Diocese of Indianapolis' Episcopal Women's Ministries! We hope you'll save the date and plan to join us September 22-24 for the Dio Indy's Women's Self-care Weekend at Waycross. On the table outside the kitchen are cards with more information. Please read and share this information with friends and women in our congregation or ministry groups and invite them to come to this restful, rejuvenating weekend. If you have questions please contact Charlene Watson at 765-474-9101 or cel.watson@comcast.net.

The Collect of The Day

The First Reading

Exodus 34:29-35

R A reading from Exodus.

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99

Dominus regnavit

The psalm is read as directed.

1. The Lord is King; let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake.
2. The Lord is great in Zion; *
he is high above all peoples.
3. Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *
he is the Holy One.
4. "O mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; *
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."
5. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
and fall down before his footstool; *
he is the Holy One.
6. Moses and Aaron among his priests,
and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *
they called upon the Lord, and he answered them.
7. He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

8. O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
you were a God who forgave them,
yet punished them for their evil deeds.
9. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and worship him upon his holy hill; *
for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

The Second Reading

2 Peter 1:13-21

R A reading from 2nd Peter.

I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to refresh your memory, since I know that my death will come soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things.

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

The Gospel

Luke 9:28-36

R The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

C Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah” —not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

The Prayers of the People

The presider introduces the prayers

In praise of the one God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, let us lift our prayers saying: Holy God, hear us.

For Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, the Presiding Bishop; & Jennifer our Bishop; for our clergy, staff, and vestry; for the Diocese of Brasilia and their bishop Mauricio and the Diocese of Haiti and St. Andre’s, Mithon; for The Province of the Anglican Church of the Congo, and St. Mary’s, Martinsville. For the whole Church’s mission and ministry that we may build a community of love which flows from the community of God, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

For all peacemakers and those who work for justice, that we may be guided to all truth by the Spirit of truth, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

For the stewards of the earth, that they accept creation as a wondrous gift and work to preserve its beauty, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

For the members of our church communities and for the spirit of unity across the whole Church, that our differences may make us rich, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

For those who are sick, suffering, or in any kind of need, that they may have endurance and hope and find comfort. For all those we name together: Paul Lawson, Alyce Dressler, Carol Helgerman, John & Elizabeth Barrett, Carolyn Speer, Barbara Hess, Pequita Behrndt, Roy Meeks, Sue Eichhorn, Dean Hunter, Janet Huber, John Howland, Rose Marie Goonewardene, Pam Ogorzaly, Ginny Hull, Kathie Basden, Jim Bodenmiller, Rebekah Sims, Julia Mills, Rhianna, Ben, Josh, Chris, Rosemary, Ben, Judy, Lisa, Logan, Caitlin & Ed, Joy, Jane, Martie & John, Scott, John, Julie, Corey, and their families; and for those we name now either silently or aloud... and for those commended to our prayers, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

For the spirit of hope in the future, that we and all who have died may drink of the fruit of the vine in glory; for Ted Paget, those buried in the St. John’s Memorial Garden, and those we name now either silently or aloud..., that they may rest in the peace of the divine community, we pray.

Holy God, hear us.

The presider concludes the prayers

O God, the Creator of all good things, we thank you and praise you, singing Holy, Holy, Holy. Answer our prayers and bring us hope through Christ your Son, who celebrates life with you in the unity of the Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The people may greet one another in the name of Christ.

Welcome & Blessings for Personal Life

Those celebrating are invited to come forward for a blessing.

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Come to this table you who have much faith and you who would have more; Come to this table you have been here often and you who have not been for a long time; Come to this table you who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed. Come to this table for it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

Communion of the People – please read

The consecrated Bread and Wine are living signs of the presence of Christ in this gathering. All Baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion; however, no one who comes forward will be refused. If you would like a gluten-free wafer, please ask when you receive. If it is not your custom to receive Communion, you are welcome to receive a blessing. Please indicate your desire for a blessing by placing both hands on your shoulders in a crossed position.

Wine is offered in the common cup. If you would prefer not to receive from the common cup for any reason, please know that the fullness of Communion is available to anyone receiving either the consecrated bread or wine alone. Because of the increased possibility of contamination, we ask communicants not to intinct or dip the bread in the wine.
