Voluntary Prelude in G Major

Felix Mendelssohn

Hymn 495

In Babilone

The Penitential Order

Opening Sentences

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

God's mercy endures forever.

The presider may say one or more of the following

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." -Mark 12:29-31

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. -Hebrews 4:14, 16

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Kyrie Eleison

Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Christ, have mer - cy up - on us. Christ, have mer - cy up - on us. Christ, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.
Lord, have mer - cy up - on us. Lord, have mer - cy up - on us.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Jeremiah 31:31-34

Reader A reading from Jeremiah.

“The days are surely coming,” says the Lord, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband,” says the Lord.

“But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says the Lord: “I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” says the Lord; “for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:9-16

The psalm is sung by the congregation.

Tone II.1

9. How shall a young man / cleanse his way?
By keep-/ing to your words.
10. With my whole heart I / seek you;
let me not stray from your / commandments.
11. I treasure your promise / in my heart,
that I may not sin / against you.
12. Blessed are / you, O LORD;
instruct me in / your statutes.
13. With my lips will / I recite
all the judg-/ments of your mouth.
14. I have taken greater delight in the way of / your decrees than in all manner / of riches.
15. I will meditate on your com-/mandments and give atten-/tion to your ways.
16. My delight is in your / statutes;
I will not /forget your word.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 5:5-10

Reader A reading from Hebrews.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Hymn 605

The Gospel

John 12:20-33

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor. Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

A brief silence follows.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The presider introduces the prayers.

Let us offer our prayers for the Church and for the world. In this season of preparation, let us also remember to be silent and listen for a fresh word from God.

O God, you brought order out of chaos with a word. We pray for the good earth you have given us and ask that you will give us the will to care for it and protect it. Make us ever mindful of our call to be stewards of your creation. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

O God, your Son Jesus Christ breathed new life on his disciples and sent them into the world to share the Gospel with all people. We pray for Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop, and Jennifer our Bishop; for the Church in Wales; for St. Paul's, Jeffersonville; for our companion Diocese of Brasilia and their bishop, Mauricio; for the Diocese of Haiti, and St. Andre's, Mithon; and for all those called to the Church's mission. Send your Holy Spirit to enliven the Church with a sense of urgency and purpose. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

O God, your prophets demanded justice and offered your vision of true peace. We pray for peace in Haiti, Israel and Palestine, Ukraine, and all other places of conflicts. We pray for Joe our President, Eric our Governor, Tony and Erin our mayors, and all those in authority. Send your prophets to call us back to the ways of justice, mercy, and humility that all people may share in your kingdom. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

O God, in you we live, and move, and have our being. We give you thanks for the many blessings of this life. We give thanks for the work of the LUM Food Pantry at St. John's, Food Finders, and all those who work to address food insecurity. We give thanks for those who find community here including Keith & Samantha LeGrand, Marilyn & Randy Leigh, Karen Lohmeyer, Teresa Lohrman, Walter Lott, Jim & Shirley Marciniak. Help us to remember that our common life depends upon one another and upon your never-failing care. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

O God, with a word your Son Jesus Christ healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, and even raised the dead. We remember before you all who are sick, alone, or in any other need. We remember all who have been commended to our prayers and those we name now either silently or aloud... Have compassion, O God, on those who suffer granting them peace, comfort, and healing. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

O God, you are the God of the living and the dead. We remember all who have died including John, those buried in the Memorial Garden, and those we name now either silently or aloud.... Give us hope in the face of death and by your promise bring them and us to the joys of eternal life. Speak, Lord, for your servants are listening.

Moment of Silence

The presider continues

Wise and loving God who sought out those living on the margins; bring us into the light of your presence; focus our hearts on your love and lead us in discernment of your will, that we may stretch out our arms to share your love with our neighbors, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Then the people greet one another in the name of Christ.

Announcements & Blessings for Personal Life

Those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries, or other milestones are invited to come forward.

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Come to this table you who have much faith and you who would have more; Come to this table you have been here often and you who have not been for a long time; Come to this table you who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed. Come to this table for it is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

The Holy Eucharist Eucharistic Prayer D

Presider                      People

The Lord be with you.      And al - so with you.

Presider                      People

Lift up your hearts.      We lift them to the Lord.

Presider

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

The Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation....

... Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ....

... Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Agnus Dei

The Invitation & Communion of the People

The consecrated Bread and Wine are living signs of the presence of Christ in this gathering. All Baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion; however, no one who comes forward will be refused. If you would like a gluten-free wafer, please ask when you come forward.

Music during Communion

Hymn 474
 Hymn 439

Rockingham Wondrous Love

The Prayer After Communion

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lenten Prayer

The presider continues

Let us kneel before the Lord.

Keep this your family, Lord, with your never-failing mercy, that relying solely on the help of your heavenly grace, they may be upheld by your divine protection; through Christ our Lord. Amen. Amen.

Hymn 473

Crucifer

The Dismissal

A member of the clergy dismisses the people, and they respond

Thanks be to God.

Voluntary Psalm 130 (found at BCP p.784)

J.S. Bach

Our worship has ended. Our service begins.

Welcome

May today's worship give you a sense of Christ's peace and inspire you to God's service.

We welcome the full participation of children in our worship. Activity bags are located at the rear of the church and may help them during the liturgy. Please return the bags after the service. We also offer nursery care during the service. If you feel it is more comfortable for your child to be in childcare, an usher can direct you to the nursery.

St. John's has a Hearing Loop system, which allows those wearing appropriate hearing aids to receive the church's sound system directly. If you wear a hearing aid, you may need your audiologist to activate the T-coil in your device.

Parish Announcements

Easter Floral Decorations

Members of St. John's are invited to celebrate Easter by helping decorate the church windows for Easter. You can bring an arrangement of your favorite flowers, and feel free to be creative. Arrangements need to be brought in on Saturday, March 30th, between 9:00 a.m. and 12 noon. For more information, contact Sue Bracey at braceys77@comcast.net.

Lost & Found

Have you misplaced your reading glasses? Did you leave your hat or gloves behind? Remember that favorite dish, tray or pan you brought to the potluck? We found it! Take a few minutes, look through the items on the tables outside the kitchen, and take what is yours. (If anything is left on the 24th you can take what you want. Everything must go.)

St. John's Offering of Letters 2024 Continues

The U.S. Farm Bill is our nation's most important national food system legislation. It is critical to ending hunger and affects each of us. Bread for the World, a non-partisan Christian advocacy organization, calls on Christians from all political parties and denominations to encourage our elected leaders to do all they can to end hunger. Reauthorizing a family-friendly Farm Bill will go a long way to helping those suffering from food insecurity in the U. S. and internationally.

St. John's will collect letters to our Senators and Representative through TODAY

March 17. Look for more information in the St. John's Commons. We will again have sample letters and letter templates available. The QR code links to more information to assist with writing your letters. Letters may be mailed directly, delivered to the church, or submitted electronically (using the QR code or <http://tinyurl.com/yckeyhen>). For more information, contact Becky Dick at beckydick.wl@gmail.com.

Serving During Holy Week

If you would like to serve during the services of Holy Week, please contact Fr. Bradley at bradleypace@stjohns-laf.org.

Holy Week & Easter Services

Holy Week and Easter form the foundation of our Christian life and worship. It is important that we join with our Christian family here at St. John's and throughout the world and attend the services that make up the Triduum: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Great Vigil of Easter.

- Palm Sunday, March 24—8 a.m., 9 a.m. (via Zoom), and 10:15 a.m. Weather permitting, the 10:15 a.m. service will begin in the Memorial Garden.
- Maundy Thursday, March 28—7 p.m.
- Good Friday, March 29—12 noon
- The Great Vigil of Easter, Saturday, March 30—8 p.m.
- Easter Sunday, March 31—8 a.m., 9 a.m. (via Zoom), & 10:15 a.m.

The St. John's office will be closed on Easter Monday, April 1.
