All through the Advent season, we will observe the lead-up to Christ's birth in our Sunday services, with the lighting of the Advent wreath, with music and with fellowship. We'll extend the Christmas spirit in outreach as we welcome our partners, The Chapel of the Good Shephard, to spread the joy of giving as hosts for Lafayette Urban Ministry's Jubilee Christmas. On the fourth Sunday in Advent, we'll green the church after services. And on Christmas Eve, at both 4 and 9:30 p.m., we'll celebrate the glory of Christmas through word and song. Join us in this most wondrous of seasons.

From the Rector

When we tell the story of the exile in Godly Play, the storyteller uses the desert box, figures that represent the people of God, and a large metal chain that separates them from their home in Jerusalem and from the Temple. One storyteller on the Godly Play Facebook page told the story of a 7-year-old in her class who was working with the desert box. He had it set up just so, with God's people on one side, the Temple on the other, and the chain separating them. He looked up at the teacher and said, "You know, if you turn the chain this way, it's a bridge instead of a wall."

When I heard this story, I thought, this kid gets it; he gets something powerful about what God is up to in the world. God, it turns out, is in the business of building bridges rather than walls. In fact, this is exactly what Christmas is about. God crosses the boundary between heaven and earth, the boundary between the divine and the human. God becomes flesh and dwells with human beings. God makes his home in the midst of human joy and pain. The Christmas story is about the incarnation — the embodiment or en-flesh-ment of God. This is what John is telling us in the beginning of his Gospel. John doesn't give us a manger or lowing cattle or shepherds or magi. John doesn't even give us angels shouting Gloria in excelsis. Instead, John takes us back to the beginning of creation. "In the beginning was the Word," he says, "and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being ..." But then the God whose word this is, the God who is this word, did something we did not expect. "The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth." This Word that became flesh comes to us in a manger, this Word lived among us as an infant child. This Word was full of the glory and grace of God because he was God in the flesh. He came to dwell with humankind — the Greek word that John uses means God literally "pitched his tent" with us. And thus, the wall between God and humanity was torn down.

May the Glory of God and of his Son, Jesus Christ, abound for you this Christmas season. May you experience the fullness of God's grace and truth. But may you also recognize what God has done, what God is doing, at Christmas. God has crossed the boundary between heaven and earth, crossed the boundary between the divine and the human. God has become flesh and lived among us, God has pitched his tent, planted his flag, made his cause with us in the midst of our joy and pain.

May the blessing of that God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be with you and those you love this Christmastide. — Bradley Pace, bradleypace@stjohns-laf.org

Worshiping

"Longest Night" Service

6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 19

Christmas time is often called "the most wonderful time of the year" in our secular world. However, for many of us, it is a time of deep sadness, loneliness and grief. Named for the winter solstice — literally the longest night of the year — this "Longest Night" service offers space to engage those feelings that seem "out of sync" with the world around us. It is an opportunity to acknowledge, own and offer up those feelings to God. We hope that this service will be a place of comfort, healing and hope for all those who attend. Even if you don't feel "out of sync" with the feelings swirling around us, this service offers an opportunity for quiet and contemplation in the midst of a hectic world. — Bradley Pace, bradleypace@stjohns-laf.org

Hanging of the Greens

Sharing

Workshop — Thanks to everyone!

Many thanks to the two dozen or so folks who helped sort food at our last “Workshop” event at Food Finders Food Bank on Nov. 6. The staff at Food Finders weren’t prepared for just how efficient and hardworking we were going to be! Thanks for all the ways you care for our community. – Bradley Pace, bradleypace@stjohns-laf.org

Jubilee Christmas

Saturday, Dec. 14

Everything is in motion for the magical event of Jubilee Christmas. St. John’s and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd will host 40 families with 120 kids. We need your help to bring the wonder of Christmas to this event. How will you help?

VOLUNTEER for one of the many jobs. Check the sign-up sheet in the Commons. Consider being an escort for one of our guests.

BUY new, non-violent toys to stock the store. Consider toys suitable for our Latino and African-American families. Donation bins are in the Commons.

BAKE a loaf of a breakfast bread to send home with a family.

DONATE cash to pay for hams, food vouchers, teen gift certificates, gifts and other supplies as needed. We need $2,440 for the LUM bill.

Jubilee Christmas is successful because of the many ways everyone in the St. John’s community participates. Do what you can to make Jubilee Christmas 2019 awesome!

See Maggie McClure, Angela Mosier, Georgia Brist or Mary Kay McCauley with questions. — Maggie McClure, magamclure@gmail.com

Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols: 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15

There are many special things regarding worship in the Episcopal Church that uniquely distinguish our tradition. One of them is the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols. This service is not often done at St. John's (only twice thus far this century), so you won't want to miss it. The story of the fall of humanity, the promise of the Messiah and the birth of Jesus is told in nine short Bible readings or lessons from Genesis, the prophetic books and the Gospels, interspersed with the singing of Christmas carols, hymns and choir anthems. It is a special service of word and song that can be offered on no better place than our beautiful candlelit church. — Michael Bennett, michael@stjohns-laf.org

The 2020 Annual Giving Campaign

Jesus told his followers, "You are the light of the world." As followers of Jesus, we have the opportunity to shine our own light into the world. Thank you for all the ways you shine the light of God's love into the Greater Lafayette community and beyond. Thank you, especially, for the ways you shine the light of God's love through the ministry of St. John's Church. As the Stewardship Committee mentioned in their letter a few weeks ago, we shine our light together through our worship, formation, pastoral care and service to the wider community.

The ministry of St. John's Church is only possible because of the abundance of God's generosity and the support of our members and friends. Nearly 70 percent of our worship, outreach, formation and pastoral care ministries are funded through annual pledges. That is why each year we reach out to ask our members and friends to support these ministries. If you are on our mailing list, you should have received a pledge card. If you have not, please contact the church office at 765-742-4079 or stjohns@stjohns-laf.org. You can also pledge online at www.stjohns-laf.org/pledge-online.

Please make a financial commitment to our ministries by pledging. Pledging allows the leadership to make decisions about the 2020 budget early and help us put our plans into action. Many thanks to those of you who have already pledged. And thanks as well to each and every one of you for all the ways you shine your light through your time, talent and your financial generosity. — Bradley Pace, bradleypace@stjohns-laf.org on behalf of the St. John's Stewardship Committee

From the Vestry

At the November Vestry meeting, among items on the agenda, the Vestry discussed the following:

- The Vestry received the draft audit report from Kemper and Associates. There were no material concerns in the audit report. Kemper suggests that we create and update a procedures manual for administrative purposes and that we adopt new allocation reporting for expenses. According to the audit, St. John's consistently operates in a positive position.
- Discussed possible candidates for the next Vestry class.
- Mary Kay McCauley gave a report from the Investment Task Force. The task force is looking into the question of moving our endowment to the Diocesan Special Fund. The task force recommends that it is reasonable for us to move the funds in the future, we should hold off until the Diocese has finalized their plans about fund management. The Vestry agreed to re-visit this next fall.
- The Vestry discussed the 2020 budget.
- Maggie McClure gave a brief update on Jubilee Christmas. This year, we will host 40 families with 120 kids (24 are teenagers). We have 10 families with six or more members. The bill has gone up because the churches have agreed that families get more money on their gift cards. We will need at least $2,400 to pay LUM, and we currently have $1,400 in cash. We do have a lot of nice extra items to provide families. Maggie suggested that Jubilee Christmas become a line item on the budget with an allotted financial amount.
